Manuscript Title: _____

Manuscript Classification: _____

Please attach a completed version of this form to your review of the manuscript. You may complete your review on the manuscript document itself or on a separate document. In your review, please consider the quality, accuracy, scope, methodological rigor, depth of research, originality/novelty, and style/organization. For original research articles, please focus particular attention on the methodological rigor and validity of the results. In addition, please consider whether the content has practical implications for collegiate EMS providers, leaders, advisors, and affiliated personnel. Please support your judgment of the manuscript with specific facts and by pointing to specific sections/wording from the article.

Unless you recommend that the manuscript be accepted without revision, please provide specific recommendations for the author to improve the quality of the work. All recommended revisions from minor (organizational structure, style, minor requests for additional research/background, etc.) to major (major requests for additional research/background) are greatly appreciated.

Recommendation: Please indicate your overall recommendation for the editorial decision.
